Dear Parents/Guardians,

World Book Day Thursday 7th March 2024

On Thursday 7th March, we will be celebrating World Book Day. As part of our celebrations, we invite pupils to come to school dressed as a character from their favourite book. On the day, we will also be holding a 'book swap' event in school, therefore, if children have any old books that they would like to bring in, they will have the opportunity to swap them for a book that they have not read before.

On Wednesday 6th March, we will be lucky enough to be visited by local author Alex Foulkes, writer of 'Rules for Vampires'. Children in Years 5 and 6 will be taking part in workshops with Alex on the day and pupils in EYFS-Y4 will have the opportunity to engage in a book chat session with her. If your children would like to purchase any of Alex's books (Rules for Vampires) after the visit then they are available to purchase at Waterstones for £7.99 (only suitable for ages 9+).

We hope that you will also support this event at home by spending some time reading with your child, discussing their favourite books and characters and by helping them to find a suitable outfit for the day. Have a look at the World Book Day website (worldbookday.com) and Pinterest for dress up ideas that can be made at home.

We are really looking forward to a week full of fun-filled activities in school, where we can share a love of reading and promote something that is so important for our children.

Yours sincerely

Mrs J Davis
English Lead
